

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
TYLER DIVISION

SOVERAIN SOFTWARE LLC,

Plaintiff

v.

AMAZON.COM, INC.

Defendant

§
§
§
§
§
§
§
§

6:04-CV-14

ORDER

Due to the Court's other trial settings, the Court resets the Dispositive Motion Hearing and Pretrial Conference to 10:00 a.m. on July 22, 2005. The parties' Pretrial Objections are now due on July 19, 2005. The parties' Motions in Limine are now due July 20, 2005. The Court ORDERS the parties to confer and attempt to reach an agreement on the Motions in Limine. The parties are to advise the Court by 5:00 p.m. on July 21, 2005 as to which paragraphs are agreed to and which paragraphs still need to be addressed at the Pretrial Conference.

The Court requests both parties provide the Court with their proposed jury instructions on a disk and in WordPerfect format at the July 22 hearing.

The Court requests the parties confer and notify the Court by July 18, 2005 as to which, if any, Motions for Partial Summary Judgment they would like to submit on the briefs and for which motions they request oral argument.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 14th day of July, 2005.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Leonard Davis', written over a horizontal line.

LEONARD DAVIS
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE